

LEADERS OF FARM BLOC UNDERTOOK TO FORCE ISSUE

Get Enough Signatures to Call Conference but Withhold it

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Farm bloc leaders in the house undertook today to force the issue on agriculture credits legislation. They obtained sufficient signatures to a call for a conference of the Republican membership, but withheld its presentation to Chairman Tower on the promise they said that the banking committee would report out a composite bill within a day or two.

They said also that arrangements had been made to take up the legislation Saturday. The whole subject came up today in the rule committee and Chairman Campbell announced subsequently that as soon as the bill was brought out the committee would report a resolution giving it right of way. Passage of the legislation within a single day was the plan.

Representative Dowell, Republican, Iowa, circulated the petition for a Republican conference and it was made clear that unless the banking committee brought out a measure covering the general ground of the Capper and Leventworth bills, recently passed by the senate the conference would be insisted upon. The question before it would be the discharge of the banking committee from further consideration of the bills and early action in the house.

While the farm bloc leaders were preparing for what Representative Dowell said would be a "showdown with the banking committee" the house agricultural committee reported out three measures designed to aid the farm one. Sinclair bill, would authorize an appropriation of $100,000,000 to organize a government corporation to buy and sell agricultural products in domestic markets and carrying authority for the issue of $500,000,000 in bonds.

A second, the Christopherson bill, introduced last July would create the "American stabilizing commission," with authority to borrow $500,000,000 from the federal reserve bank for the purpose of buying the surplus of wheat and corn and thereby guaranteeing stability to the market. The commission, composed of the secretaries of agriculture, labor and commerce would announce before planting season each year the prices to be paid with a minimum of $1.50 a bushel for wheat and 75 cents for corn.

The third measure reported by the agriculture committee was the Little bill which would create a $30,000,000 revolving fund to be used by the secretary of agriculture to buy, sell and store wheat in such quantities as to guarantee a stable market.

A minimum price of $1.50 would be paid the producer.

Members of the house banking committee said today they had been working steadily on credits measures, but that the task had been complicated because the legislation had come from the senate committee.

They were said to be opposed to reporting out any legislation unless they were assured that it would not affect the efficiency of the present banking and credits structure.

Under the measure "agriculture paper" would be defined and it would be made eligible for rediscount at federal reserve banks on endorsement of member banks. Maturity would be fixed at as high as nine months.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT PASSES ON RATES

Joint Rates May be Divided Between Roads Participating

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Joint freight rates may be divided by groups between the railroads participating in the service, the supreme court held today in the New England division cases brought by all of the railroads west of the Hudson river with the exception of the Baltimore and Ohio, the New York Central and the Pennsylvania.

Having increased the freight rates of railroads in the eastern division 40 percent the interstate commerce commission upon complaint of New England lines and after a hearing, issued an order giving the New England companies an increase of 15 percent in the division of these rates, and decreasing the share of the railroads west of the Hudson correspondingly.

The case involved the first attack by railroads upon the constitutionality of the transportation act of 1920, the railroads west of the Hudson claiming the action of the commission in ordering the increase of the division to the New England lines was acting arbitrarily and was helping the more needy companies at the expense of the other parties to the rate. Pointing out that the commission after its first hearing had directed the railroads in the group to proceed individually to reach just their divisional agreements the supreme court stated it was not until the railroads had failed to do so that the commission had ordered the division complained of, emphasizing that in doing so it had left the door open for correction upon application of any carrier in respect to any rate.

REMINGTON ASKED FOR BODY GUARD

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 19.—Earl Remington, electrical engineer, who was stabbed and shot to death at his own doorway last Thursday night, sought the services of a private detective as a body guard that night, the police said tonight.

The police said A. Dan Collins, detective, told the police he received a telephone call from Remington about 6:45 o'clock the night of the slaying.

"He seemed excited," Collins was quoted as saying, "he said 'meet me at 7 o'clock at the Los Angeles Athletic club and be sure to bring your revolver.' I told him I was unable to meet him at 7 o'clock so we agreed I should meet him at 9."

"I was on time and waited until 10 o'clock but he did not appear. Remington did not tell me what fears caused him to seek my help but said he had been recommended to me by a friend whom he did not name."

The police said they were searching for the "friend" in the hope they could learn why the engineer wanted a body guard.

NO DECISION ON BONUS BILL UNTIL APRIL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 19.—A decision upon the legality of the Illinois Soldiers' Bonus Act will probably will not be handed down by the state supreme court before the April term of court.

Chief Justice Thompson said tonight. He declared that there are several phases of the measure which will call for the careful consideration of the court before a ruling is made.

If the verdict is not forthcoming before April, the work in the bonus headquarters in Springfield will continue but it is not likely that a additional appropriation for paying the soldiers will be sought until a final decision is rendered.

FAVORABLE ACTION BY HOUSE IS TAKEN ON BRITISH DEBT

Indications Are That it Will Become Effective March 1

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The agreement between the American and British governments under which Great Britain will have 62 years for the payment of its $4,300,000,000 war debt to this country will become effective before the end of this month. This was made certain today with the action of the house ways and means committee in introducing Chairman Fordney to move tomorrow in the house to accept the senate changes to the amendment to the debt funding act, giving congressional approval of the agreement. The committee vote was unanimous and the public vote is expected to be practically the same.

Several Republican committee members were not wholly satisfied with either of the senate amendments but they voted to accept them, because they thought it would be unwise to throw the bill into conference and thus make it subject to uncertainties which surround all important legislation in the closing days of congress.

Chief objection was to the Robinson amendment requiring congressional approval if the settlements with the other debtor nations, the argument being advanced that this might operate to slow up negotiations with those nations because it will not be in session again until next December. The Harris amendment requiring the appointment of three Democrats to the commission also was not entirely satisfactory to some.

Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio, a member of the American debt commission was understood to have told the committee that it would be better to have the commission divided, five Republicans and two Democrats, but he urged acceptance by the house of the senate changes.

Formal drafting of indenture which will comprise the terms of the debt funding arrangement has been begun. It was stated officially at the treasury. It has been found impracticable to include specific of the funding settlement in the bonds themselves and the contract form official terminology has been approved. The bonds which the British government will give merely will refer to the agreement as set forth in the indenture.

Definite decision has not been reached by the two governments as to the amounts of the bonds but it appeared to be a foregone conclusion that it would be the largest ever to come from the bureau of engraving here.

A unanimous decision was reached by the house ways and means committee to recommend that the house accept changes in the British debt funding bill.

Favorable report of a resolution providing for submission to the states of a child labor constitutional amendment was ordered by the senate judiciary committee.

The supreme court held that a high caste Hindu is not a free white person within the meaning of the nationalization law and therefore is not entitled to citizenship. Doubt was expressed at the state department as to whether Secretary Hughes would find it possible to attend the Pan-American conference at Santiago, Chile next month.

The nomination of Senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, to be ambassador to Peru was sent by president Harding to the senate which quickly confirmed it by unanimous vote.

An adverse report on John B. Henderson's offer of a $300,000 residence to be used as a home for the vice president was made by the senate public buildings committee which said it could not recommend an outlay of $15,000 annually for maintenance.

DEMANDS THAT POLICE SEARCH LABOR LEADERS

State's Attorney Crowe Wants This Done all the Time

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—A demand that Chicago labor leaders be searched for concealed weapons every time they are met by the police was made today by State's Attorney Crowe, as a result of the pistol fight in which crowded cafe last night in which Steve Kellher, a union official, was slain. It was the twenty-fourth labor killing in Chicago in the past twelve years.

In a letter to Charles Fitzmorris, chief of police, Mr. Crowe said: "May I suggest that you issue a general order through your subordinates that every time they meet these sluggers who mask as labor leaders that they search them for concealed weapons. In my judgment if this is done, killings similar to the Kellher one would be less frequent."

Meanwhile "Handsome Dan" McCarthy, another labor leader who was arrested following the slaying of Kellher and the wounding by a stray bullet of a woman dancer declared he had fired in self defense. He blamed Kellher's wife for the shooting, declaring that she had called him a "rat" and other names.

The inquest was postponed until Friday.

TRAFFIC PROBLEM IN PALESTINE IS BECOMING ACUTE

Camel and Donkey Replaced By Auto Causes This Condition

(By The Associated Press)
BOSTON, Feb. 19.—The camel and donkey have been so far displaced by the automobile in Palestine that the regulation of motor traffic has become a problem. The registration of motor vehicles, Goodman, was informed in a letter asking his advice, received today. Captain J. W. Bower, Jr., an American army officer wrote that the situation was becoming acute, due to the increasing number of automobiles being imported to Palestine, most of them for American tourists.

The roads were being repaired to meet the demands of the motor traffic, he said, adding that it was now possible to travel over motor roads, equipped with filling stations the length and breadth of Palestine, or, literally "from Dan to Beersheba."

Registration of automobiles was being carried on at Jerusalem, Jaffa and other places, it said, but the system that was being used had proved unworkable and traffic regulations were inadequate.

RAILROAD LABOR BOARD IS BODY WITHOUT POWER

This Opinion Handed Down by U. S. Supreme Court

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The railroad labor board is a board of arbitration without power to enforce its rulings, but dependent upon the support of public sentiment to give its acts effect, the supreme court today decided in a case brought by the Pennsylvania railroad company.

The case was an appeal from the decision of the seventh circuit court of appeals, refusing to grant a restraining order prohibiting the board board from publishing its findings with regard to the refusal of the railroad company to conduct labor dispute negotiations with certain representatives of organized labor.

The controversy arose during the recent strikes of the railroad shop crafts and the Pennsylvania railroad pointing out that it had negotiated its difficulties with representatives of its employees, refused to comply with the ruling of the railroad board that it should recognize officers of certain labor organizations as representatives of its employees and negotiate with them.

Asserting that it was not the intention of congress in providing for the railroad labor board in the transportation act of 1920 to create a "tribunal to determine what were the legal rights and obligations of a railroad employer and employees, or to enforce or protect them," the supreme court pointed out that the courts can do that.

The labor board was created, the court asserted, "to decide how the parties ought to exercise their legal rights so as to enable them to cooperate in running the railroads."

"It was to reach a fair compromise between the parties," the court continued, "without regard to the legal rights upon which each side might insist in a court of law. It is to give expression to its view of the moral obligation of each side as members of society to agree upon a basis for cooperation in the work of running the railroad in the public interest."

The only limitation upon the board's decisions is that they should establish a standard of conditions which, in its opinion is just and reasonable. The jurisdiction of the board to direct the parties to do what it deems they should do it not to be limited by their constitutional rights to refuse to do it. Under the act there is no constraint upon them to do what the board decides they should do except the moral constraint already mentioned, of publication of its decision.

HOUSE OF COMMONS REJECTS LIBERAL AMENDMENT MONDAY

Debate Lifted Above Ordinary by Speech of Lloyd George

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Feb. 19.—The house of commons tonight by a vote of 305 to 196 rejected the joint liberal amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne proposing an investigation by the league of nations with American cooperation into Germany's capacity to pay reparations.

Debate on the question was lifted above the ordinary by the brilliant speech of former Premier Lloyd George who revealed undiminished parliamentary energy.

Thus thru parliamentary etiquette, which regards an amendment to the address as a vote of censure against the government of the day, the house rejected a proposal which probably had the strong sympathy of the majority of its members because a contrary vote would have meant the fall of the government.

H. A. L. Fisher, Liberal member for English universities, who was president of the board of education in the Lloyd George cabinet, in opening the debate, considered the cooperation of America so all important that if American participation could not be obtained otherwise he should be permitted to send delegates independently of the league.

Lord Robert Cecil while not minimizing the importance of American help, thought that a formal invitation to Washington would entail grave danger of rebuffing America and might cause Washington to restate the government's opinion that Europe must first compose her own quarrels. Lord Robert, like other speakers, emphasized the urgency of avoiding a breach with France but regarded the idea of a world conference to revise the treaty of Versailles from top to bottom as an impossible policy.

Mr. Lloyd George displaying all his old mastery of apt phrase, took the line that the momentum of French action in the Ruhr had developed beyond anything the French government ever conceived and that it was the business of England and America to extricate France from an impossible and dangerous position. He repudiated any idea of censuring or criticizing the Bonar Law government which had done its best as a faithful ally.

In brief Mr. Lloyd George considered the French government committed a policy of irretrievable disaster. There has been nothing in the reparations problem which in his opinion demanded such a violent step and the disquieting feature was that there must be some reason besides reparations since clearly reparations was not the object in view. It would be difficult for France now to retrace her steps while the pride of both countries was engaged. The pride of France and Germany had been aroused these countries stood in a position of defiance.

WAR DEPARTMENT APPROPRIATIONS RUN $336,347,000

Agreement Reached by House and Senate Conferees Monday

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Appropriations of $336,347,000 for the war department for the next fiscal year are provided under an agreement on the annual army bill reached today by the senate and house conferees. The amount is about $4,000,000 less than provided by the senate and $3,000,000 more than the house figures.

Only a few differences between the house and senate had remained for adjustment and the conferees' action practically completed the measure the last of the unfinished appropriation bills of the session. The compromise was accepted by the senate tonight and now is to be presented to the house. Under it provisions designed to prohibit retirement pay to Major General Harbord, retired, former deputy chief of staff, would be modified to permit General Harbord who is now the head of a radio corporation to receive retirement pay but would prohibit retired army officers from accepting employment with concerns whose principal business is sales to the government.

No substantial changes were made in the provision for an army of 125,000 men and 12,000 officers. The conferees also left unchanged the rivers and harbors fund of $56,589,000.

Appropriations for river and harbor surveys were fixed at $456,850, a senate addition of $50,000 being eliminated.

Compromises on appropriations for the organized reserves, the reserve officers' training corps and civilian military training also were reached. For the organized reserves $900,000 for fifteen day training is provided as against $1,100,000 proposed by the senate with $250,000 additional for training in excess of fifteen days. For the reserve officers' training corps $3,500,000 is allowed as compared with $4,000,000 proposed by the senate. For the civilian military training camps $2,000,000 is provided a reduction of $200,000 in the senate provisions. The conferees retained the amendment of Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, designed to prevent demotion of the revised number of captains.

PROBING FOR CAUSE OF HOSPITAL FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—A day of investigating the ruins, investigating the cause, followed the disastrous fire which early yesterday wrecked a ward of the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane on Wards' Island, killing 22 patients, and three male attendants.

The death list was increased today to 26 thru the death of Peter Pettas who died of exposure after being removed from one ward to another during the fire.

Out of all the investigations started by many different agencies great expressions of belief that greater care was needed to protect madmen's life only two of those 75 structures were declared by Superintendent Marcus B. Heyman to be fire proof.

Coupled with the assertion of Dr. Heyman that a fire much more serious than that of yesterday threatens the island at any time, came a statement from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, which in 1920 surveyed the institution, declaring that "the terrible holocaust serves again to emphasize the danger of death from fire that exists in such institutions throughout the country."

I THINK that to have known one good old man—one man, who through the chances and mischances of a long life, has carried his heart in his hand, like a palm branch, waving all discords into peace—helps our faith in God, in ourselves, and in each other more than many sermons.

Not all the facts about the wonders found in the tomb of King Tut in Egypt have been made known, but enough information has been released to show that away back 1500 years B. C. there were evidences of civilization which must have been in some respects equal to that of the present day. Not all things worth while are the product of modern times.

The annual report of the Jacksonville water department, presented by Supt. Cobb, shows an increase in revenue for 1922 of more than $8,300. It is not claimed by city officials that the Jacksonville water project has been completed. A great deal of work remains to be done and there must be further expenditures at the plant and on the grounds. But the splendid increase in returns made during the year gives ample proof that the project can be enlarged and developed with the feeling that the investment made will yield ample returns.

"When our grandparents wished to send a communication 20 miles in a hurry, they sent a boy on horseback and were well satisfied if they received a reply in six hours," says Carl Wilde, director of service for the Indiana Public Service Commission. "Today, we are exasperated if we cannot reach a party 200 or 300 miles distant in 15 minutes. We make no allowance for busy clerks, nor do we think it possible that the party we are calling may be using his telephone. I am afraid it is human nature and I am afraid it is hard to overcome."

If you want to help along with the good roads movement for Morgan county, join the expedition to Springfield today. If a large company of Morgan county citizens appears at the hearing with reference to the road to the southeast, Gov. Small and the officers of the highway department will be impressed with the thought that the interest of this county is real.

It possibly should not be necessary for a community to make an appeal of this kind, but the custom has been so established and the city or county not represented at such a hearing is assumed to be without very definite interest.

Figures presented by President Harker last night in reviewing "Forty Years of Higher Education in Illinois," gave proof of remarkable growth. While surprising as related to colleges, still greater changes have come with secondary schools.

It is significant indeed to relate that forty years ago there were less than 100 high schools in Illinois, with an enrollment of 11,000, while today there are 900 such schools with an enrollment of 150,000. Just as great changes have taken place in the matter of equipment and buildings for educational work. While these things have been accomplished, it is still more interesting to note that the movement is upward and onward, with more development of educational work, increased opportunities of study for young people and larger sums of money available for educational work.

GREENE COUNTY MAN DIED VERY SUDDENLY

A. Dennis Nash Passed Away Monday Morning After Very Brief Illness at Home Near White Hall—Other News From White Hall.

White Hall Feb. 19.—The death of A. Dennis Nash occurred in his home immediately north of town at 10 o'clock this morning. He had been in poor health for several years, but announcement of his death came unexpectedly. At 8 o'clock it was given out that he was better. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

The deceased was a son of David Nash, who migrated from Kentucky to Greene county with the first settlers in this locality, bringing with him a bride. All their children were born in the High street neighborhood, southwest of White Hall, and they were seven in number, five sons and two daughters, of whom the only survivor is George W. Nash of Highstreet. Our subject was one of the younger of these seven children, he having attained his 56th birthday on January 13th, last. He has always resided in this locality. His wife's maiden name was Annie McDams. They were the parents of nine children, two dying in infancy, and Belle, wife of Oscar Maberry, died eight years ago. The survivors are Mrs. Clyde Heberling, Mrs. Mont Winters, Edward, Curtis, Harry and Ollie, all of White Hall and the two latter at home, except that Edward resides at Alsey. There are fourteen grand children. The names of the deceased brothers and sisters bring up names of well known and influential people in Capt. A. D. Nash, John A. Nash, James W. Nash, Henry P. Nash, Mrs. George Bullock and Mrs. James Nease.

Among the children of Dennis Nash are some of the best types of young manhood and womanhood, who have visions of the duty to friends and neighbors, and who can scent the beauty and grandeur of a clean and upright life in the human individual as many find only in the flowers that bloom.

News Notes
 Mrs. Clay Boone Hollis, formerly of Winchester, writes of the death of her husband in St. Mary's hospital at Kansas City, Mo., after an illness of five months. They went to Colorado last May with the intention of spending most of the summer, but Mr. Hollis developed a severe heart affection that caused them to return at once to Kansas City. Mrs. Hollis has now gone to Neosho, Mo., to reside on their farm near there.

Winter wheat has not been perceptibly injured in the opinion of local crop authorities, as the result of the cold weather that has prevailed over this section since last Tuesday night, since which time the temperature has ranged from two degrees, the highest, to two above zero, the latter figure being recorded Sunday morning. When the cold wave came with a suddenness the ground was wet from light rains and heavy fog, and this formed a coating of ice that left the wheat not without some protection in the absence of snow. Clover may be damaged to some extent, but this in any event would not aggregate an important loss.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS HERE IN CONFERENCE

SUBJECTS OF INTEREST TO EDUCATORS PRESENTED.

Dr. Harker Honored at Evening Dinner—Address Showed Progress of Forty Years—Dr. Seashore of Iowa, Discussed "Individuals at Curricula."

The eighteenth annual session of the Federation of Illinois Colleges opened Monday afternoon at the Illinois Woman's college. There was a large attendance of representatives of the college of Illinois. The afternoon program was carried out according to schedule.

Secretary A. L. Whittenberg of the state department of public instruction, made a report on "Relation to State Education." President Tilden spoke on "Scholarships and President Hall on conference with the state university. In the round table discussion the leaders were Dean Charles M. Poor of Lombard and Dean G. H. Scott of Illinois college. The address of the afternoon was by Dean D. A. Robertson of the University of Chicago, who had for his theme "Degree Requirements in terms of Objectives and Achievements."

Forty Years of Progress
 A dinner was served in a handsome way in the main dining room of the college. The table decorations were suggestive of the near approach of Washington's Birthday. Grace was said by Rev. E. L. Ruble. After the final course, Mr. E. E. Hall, president of the association presided and in a fitting way introduced Dr. Joseph R. Harker, who talked on the theme, "Forty Years in the Colleges of Illinois."

In an informing paper which will be reproduced in full at another time, President Harker discussed the subject under five general divisions:

The changes in the curricula. Changes in the relation of secondary and college attention. Changes in current costs of college attendance and administration. Property and endowment comparisons.

In the federation of Illinois colleges only 18 were listed as such forty years ago. "The most marvelous change has come about in the matter of enrollment, with 30,000 college students today by comparison with 2,000 forty years ago. At the earlier date there were 150 high schools, with about 11,000 students and today there are 900 with an enrollment of 150,000.

Figures were also given to show the great growth of the universities of the state and the vast increases in the amount of money invested in property and endowments.

Preceding Dr. Harker's address, Miss Hershbrugh gave two violin numbers with artistic excellence. Miss Sapio was the accompanist.

Paid Tribute to Dr. Harker
 Following this very interesting review of the development of college interest in the state during the period mentioned, Francis G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction, made an address. Blair paid tribute to Dr. Harker, commenting upon his upward rise from a digger in the mines to his present secure place in the educational world. He said that while President Harker was a miner, he still found time to each day look into a book, and so came to master books.

The speaker cleverly linked together the words, "Harker-American-Book." He used Dr. Harker as an example of his statement that what is needed in education is individual attack of the problem.

Mr. Blair went on to say that every person is self-educated. The instructor can assist but the matter of education really rests with the individual.

Advocated Special Work
 At the evening session Dean C. E. Seashore of the University of Iowa, and member of the National Research Council, delivered an interesting address on "The Individual and the Curriculum." He advocated the use of the system of individual study for the brighter students, so that they might be allowed to graduate in less than four years from the standard college. An effort is now being made to discourage the poorer students from entering higher institutions of learning. In the large universities of the northwest, a student who ranks in the lower fourth of his class cannot graduate in less than eight years. Dr. Seashore reasons that the same methods of grading if applied to the better students, would enable them to graduate in less time.

The speaker disapproved of some of the methods of distributing honors in American colleges and universities. He advocated allowing the student more time for special work, and said that honors should be given for something more than the ordinary proficiency in the routine class work. Dr. Seashore stated that there should be some method of checking up on the character of a student. The small college, where the president is in personal touch with every student, has passed away; and yet there are large universities where members of the faculty exercise personal influence over the students.

The Program Today
 At the close of the evening session, the Federation decided to take one half hour from the morning session today and conduct the chapel exercises of the Woman's college. The program for the final session of the Federation this morning is as follows:

8:30-9:45 A. M.—Round-

FUNERALS

Goltra.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret H. Goltra were held at 11 o'clock Monday morning from the Reynolds chapel, in charge of Rev. W. H. Marbach. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Mr. Marbach had for his theme "In the evening there shall be light," and in a very impressive way emphasized the meaning of these words. The minister said that the common thought was that in the evening darkness came, but that in a life wherein righteousness dominates, light comes at eventide.

Reference was made to the faithfulness of Miss Goltra's life and the zeal that she had in the work of the church she loved. For many years Miss Goltra sang in the choir of State Street church and in that and other ways for a long period of time was active in support of the church.

Vocal music was given by Mrs. W. Barr Brown, and Miss Parker, with Miss Isabel Woodman at the organ.

The floral tokens were in care of Miss Jeanette Russell, Mrs. Gertrude R. Goltra, Miss Grace Carter and Mrs. M. C. Hook.

Pallbearers were J. G. Reynolds, Will Goebel, L. W. Brown, Walter Ayers, James Stout and Howard Russell.

Ruble.
 The funeral of Andrew J. Ruble was held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the home of his brother, Milton Ruble, near Alexander. The services were conducted by Rev. William Keenan of Bloomington, assisted by Rev. J. D. Reid. Interment was in Woodward cemetery.

Music was furnished by Miss Emma Keenan, Miss Katherine Kaiser, Claude Keenan and Edward Erickson, with Miss Hall at the piano.

The floral tributes were in charge of the Misses Josephine Ruble, Margaret Harrison and Lucille Ruble and Mrs. Ransie McGrath.

Pallbearers were: R. H. Ruble, M. E. Ruble, A. D. Ruble, W. H. Sorrells, Stewart Ruble and Kenneth Ruble.

SPANISH WAR VETS HEAR REV. PONTIUS

Local Minister Delivers Patriotic Message, With Story of Maine as Center—Forty Veterans Are in Attendance.

"Remember the Maine" was the title of a stirring patriotic message delivered Sunday evening by Rev. M. L. Pontius at the Central Christian church in honor of forty veterans of the Spanish-American War, who attended in a body. The church had been decorated with flags and bunting, and the service was very impressive. Special music by the choir was a feature of the program.

Rev. Pontius, in his address, told the story of the sinking of the Maine. He said in part:

The Maine was one of the first modern steel battleships built by the United States. It was 324 feet long and ten inch guns were the largest carried by the Maine.

Six weeks prior to the explosion Captain Sigsbee was ordered to take the Maine to Havana harbor. The presence of this battleship in the harbor was not a challenge of war. The Maine was sent there to protect American lives and property in Havana and Cuba.

Twenty-five years ago we heard the slogan, "Remember the Maine." It may be said to the credit of the U. S. Navy and Army that not once during the Spanish-American war was this slogan used as a war challenge. I am using this general subject, "Remember the Maine," for two reasons.

First to call attention to the fact that at 9:40 P. M. on Feb. 15th, 1898 the U. S. Battleship, the Maine, was blown up in Havana harbor and 260 American sailors lost their lives. I do not believe that the destruction of the Maine caused the Spanish-American war any more than I believe that the firing on Ft. Sumpter caused the Civil War or the assassination of the crown prince of Austria caused the World War. Doubtless the sinking of the Maine was responsible for the Spanish-American war beginning a few months earlier than it would have begun otherwise.

Second I wish to call attention to the Spanish-American war by referring to the destruction of the Maine. The World War continued for more than four years, the Civil War continued from '61 to '65. Therefore we are apt to forget the war of brief duration fought in '98. This war was fought in the interest of an oppressed people and not for aggrandizement.

These veterans of the Spanish-American war have the satisfaction of having participated in a war that relieved oppression in Cuba and in a few years gave to the people of this island their independence; ended Spanish rule in the western world; replaced disease with health, slavery with freedom and ignorance and superstition with knowledge in the Philippine Islands.

Some of the most heroic sacrifices and service the world has witnessed were portrayed by our soldiers in the Spanish-American war. They went forward to battle carrying the Stars and Stripes as the symbol of the best in civic righteousness and reformation.

Tonight we honor the men who died for Cuba. Theirs is the glory of self-sacrifice. Theirs is the death of heroes. Theirs is the sleep of the brave.

Let us remember that a man is no less a hero because he comes from the field of battle uninjured. So we honor these veterans of '98 and trust they will be as brave, that they will exemplify this same imperious passion, the same reckless abandon of self in fighting the battles required to win the victory and insure the blessings in the patriotism of peace.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT UNION CHURCH

Evangelist J. R. Reynolds Being Heard Nightly By Large Audiences—Strong Sermons Presented.

Revival services are in progress at Union Baptist church, near Pisgah and a great deal of interest is being shown. The services are being largely attended and the evangelist, Rev. J. R. Reynolds of Huntington, W. Va., has messages that the people are appreciating.

It is the expectation that the services will continue nightly until the first of March. Homer Woods is in charge of the choir and music is made a feature of each service.

Sunday morning the evangelist had as his sermon theme, "On the Mind of Christ." It was a consecration service and many of the members of the church rededicated themselves to the Christian life. Sunday night the theme was "The Old Time Religion," and last night "Stirring Up the Eagle's Nest."

Tonight Rev. Mr. Reynolds will talk of "Eternity" and tomorrow night's subject will be "The Magnetic Power of the Cross." The series of meetings promises to be very helpful to the community.

Gloria was beautiful—but it was the vain, proud beauty of the peacock—and Anthony was damned. Not so much by his own actions as by his environment and expectations. ## HAM EXPLAINS ABOUT NEW LINE of Illinois Central Says

Cut Proposed in South-Illinois Will Not Reduce Revenues.

AGO, Feb. 19.—President
n of the Illinois Central today gave out the following statement in regard to the proposed new line
from Fulton, Ky., to Edgewood,
Ky., to Edgewood,
attention has been called to the fact that many Illinois

newspapers have recently contained articles emanating from Cairo concerning the plans of the Illinois Central System for constructing a new single track line
from Fulton, Ky., to Edgewood, Ill. Particular weight has been given to the assertion by opponents of the plan that if this new line is built the revenues of the state will be reduced on account of the diversion of traffic from the charter lines of the Illinois Central. There is not the slightest ground for this charge. I assert confidently that the tax bill of the Illinois Central in Illinois will be increased rather than diminished by the building of the new line. The charter of the Illinois Central provides, in effect, that the railroad shall pay to the state, in lieu of all other taxes, 7 per cent of its gross receipts.

"Of the more than 6,000 miles
of line operated by the Illinois Central System, only 705 miles are subject to its provisions. All the rest of the mileage of the system is taxed just as are other railroads. The new line will add 130 miles of railroad in Illinois, and this additional mileage will be subject to general taxation.
The new line will open up a portion of the estate not heretofore supplied with railway facilities.
The greater part of the new business thus created will reach the charter lines at Edgewood, and from that point will be subject to the 7 per cent charter tax.

"The history of the Illinois Central has been that every addition to the system has increased the earnings of the charter lines and as a result has increased the amount of taxes in Illinois.
In 1877, before the Illinois Central began its policy of expansion, the state received in revenue from the charter tax about $316,- 000, based on gross receipts of about $4,500,000. Competing roads were invading the Illinois Central's territory and taking away its traffic. With the change in the policy of the road, resulting in the acquisition of a portion of the Southern Lines in 1882, certain lines in central Illinois in 1888, the Yazoo & Mississippi in 1892, the Louisville-Memphis line in 1897, the line from Fort Dodge, Iowa, to Omaha in 1900, the Peoria-Evanston line in 1900 and other important lines now composing the system,
the gross receipts of the charter lines steadily increased so that,
without any increase in charter line mileage, the 7 per cent paid the state grew from $316,351 in 1877 to $3,170,226.56 in 1922.

Increases Gross Revenue

"The effect of the addition of the branch lines has been to increase greatly the gross revenues of the original lines and the payments to the state. We may be sure that history will repeat itself. In all fairness, I wish to say that, in proposing this new line,

no one connected with the management of the Illinois Central has considered any saving in the amount of taxes paid the state or has believed the change will so result.

"I am projecting this line we are thinking only of the imperative need of enlarging our facilities to take care of our steadily expanding business. In the last ten years our traffic on certain parts of our line has been more than doubled. In view of this great increase, if we are to keep ahead of the traffic, it is obvious that a new line must be built, and that as soon as possible. We are rapidly approaching the limit of our present facilities.

"The new line will cost $17,- 000,000. Its construction will avoid the necessity of double-tracking that part of our Kentucky division from Fulton to Paducah. It will develop much valuable new traffic and serve a considerable territory now without adequate railway service. The heaviest grade will be three-tenths of 1 per cent. The line will be comparatively inexpensive to construct and also economical to operate. On the other hand, it would cost $24,000,000 to make the changes in existing lines considered necessary for future development, and after this expenditure had been made the expense of maintenance would be much greater than on the proposed line and operating conditions would by no means be so favorable. Moreover, the territory would not be developed.

"The construction of the proposed line will not unduly affect communities on the existing line.
There will be business enough for all. It should be obvious that the new line will greatly benefit communities through which it will be built and yet that they will not grow at the expense of those located on the existing line.
While there will be some necessary rearrangements and readjustments, the public generally will be so greatly benefited that there is no justification for the effort of certain communities to promote a contrary belief. Illi-

BANQUET TONIGHT AT MURRAYVILLE CHURCH

Men's Bible Class to Give Banquet
For Men in Interest of Sunday School—Quarterly Conference
to Precede Banquet.

Murrayville, Feb. 20.—A banquet is to be given at 8 o'clock tonight at the Murrayville M. E.
church, under the auspices of the Men's Bible class. The banquet is planned in the interest of the Sunday school and a very interesting program is to be presented, with Rev. W. C. Harms serving as toastmaster.

The main address of the evening will be by C. S. Smith of Jacksonville, who will discuss various Sunday school problems and will have something very much worth while to say. There will be other talks by local men, and there will be a number of special numbers by the orchestra.

A quartet including Roy Carlson, T. G. Beadles, Harold Cunningham and Warren Wright will give several selections during the evening.

About 100 invitations have been issued and the banquet will be served without charge. The Ladies Aid of the church will furnish and serve the banquet.

At 7 o'clock the second quarterly conference will be held at the church, presided over by Rev.
E. L. Fletcher, district superintendent.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HAS SEVERAL ALARMS

Several Fires Fail to Observe the Sabbath—Roof Burnt of North Main Home.

Due to the quick work of the local fire department several fires which broke out Sunday were halted without much loss. No houses were totally destroyed, the complete roof of one house being the greatest individual loss.

An alarm was turned in at 7:35 o'clock Sunday morning from the home of R. K. DePrates, 1095 North Main street. The fire had gotten a good start and neighbors were carrying out furniture when the department reached the scene of action. But by playing several hoses on the blaze it was gotten under control without damaging
the body of the house.

RETURN FROM CHICAGO

Mrs. J. A. Ayers several weeks since went to her old home in Peru, Ind. for a visit at the home of her brother Charles H. Brownell and family. Subsequently she went to Chicago to spend a number of days with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Ayers Black. There
Mr. Ayers joined her and their return was delayed by Mr. Ayers' illness. However, they arrived in Jacksonville last night and are again at their home on West State street.

REV. HOWELLS ASKED TO CONDUCT REVIVAL

Baptist Pastor Here is Invited to Hold Meetings at Lafayette
Park Church in St. Louis—
Will Not Accept Invitation.

Rev. Mr. Howells decided yesterday that he would not accept the invitation extended him by the Lafayette park church. A union revival series, in which ten prestant churches will join, is to open here March 12, and the services of all local ministers will be needed on the home field. The decision to start the revival here was made Monday morning at the regular meeting of the Ministerial association.

The pastor of the First Baptist church of Jacksonville, Rev.
A. P. Howells, has been invited to conduct a revival meeting for the Lafayette Park Baptist church of St. Louis in a simultaneous evangelistic campaign among the Baptist churches of the Missouri metropolis that will cover the entire city. The Baptist city-wide campaign committee have enlisted fifty white and colored Baptist churches with a constituency of thirty thousand members, in what is believed to be the biggest thing in revival effort that has ever been attempted by the Baptists of St. Louis. The date set is March 4 to 18. A weekly publication called "The Herald," is being issued for a month preceding the campaign and is being distributed in the churches by thousands. Wind shield and window signs are appearing, while store and other advertising. Buttons for the Sunday school scholars and tender signs for the street cars will make their appearance on next Sunday. A specialist will write up the display advertising for the daily press. Cottage prayer meetings covering the entire city will precede the great meeting, while a noon day prayer meeting will be held daily at the Third Baptist church and probably a downtown theatre. Dr. L.
M. Hale of the Delmar church is president of the campaign committee and Dr. S. E. Ewing, superintendent of mission missions is the secretary. Evangelist and pastors from neighboring states are being called in to assist the local pastors. Virginia sends Dr.
R. D. Garland, Alabama releases
Dr. J. E. Dillard, Tennessee contributes L. O. Vermillion. From Texas comes Rev. L. C. Wolfe and from Louisiana comes Dr. M. E.
Dodd. Several Illinois pastors have been invited. Rev. A. Runtz of Trenton, Ill., will conduct the meeting for the St. Louis Place church and Rev. C. E. Durden, Galesburg, Ill., will have charge of the services at the West Park church, his former pastorate.

Evangelist J. N. Edmondson,
formerly of Illinois will conduct the Grand Avenue church meeting, and Rev. A. P. Howells of Jacksonville was asked to direct the services at Lafayette Park church. Rev. Howells, however, has declined owing to the fact that the First church is in a drive for fifty new members by Easter in a personal work campaign.

The ministers at their meeting Monday morning, selected Prof. Arnold Lovejoy, of the voice department of Illinois Censervatory of Music, to take charge of the chorus work and singing at the union revivals, which will open at Grace M. E. church on Sunday, March 11.

A Pink Reflection

WOULD YOU buy a hand glass which turned everything before it pink? You would not! A mirror reflects exactly what is before it. The Victrola has no "tone." It is just a perfect mirror—that's all.
Imagine adding "tone" to Elman's playing! To say that a reproducing machine has tone is to mislead. The Victrola reproduces—with the fidelity of a good mirror—exactly what is in the original. The marvelous accuracy of this reproduction will be demonstrated to you in our private rooms at any time. Do not be misled by "tone" arguments.
There is no such thing. To add "tone" to a reproducing instrument would be to destroy the original. A great sum of money and many years' toil by clever people have produced a perfect instrument which gives but one tone—that of the instrument or vocal artist brought before you by its magic.

COLLINS DEAL DECLARED OFF

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—Failure to consummate the proposed deal between the owners of the New York and Chicago American clubs, involving Eddie Collins, the Chicago second baseman, and reference to the proposed Continental League as the "Joke of the winter," by President Johnson of the American League, were the outstanding features of the meeting of the league magnates today. Beyond the adoption of the playing schedule for the coming season little business was transacted. After the meeting of the league's board of directors, Harry Grabner and William "Kid" Gleason respectively Secretary and Manager of the Chicago Club, and Col. Jacob Ruppert, part owner of the Yankees and Manager Miller Huggins, discussed the Collins deal but announced that they were unable to reach an agreement.

"The Collins matter is off," Mr. Grabner stated. "We are well satisfied with our club and will go to our training camp with it intact."

Collins denied reports that he was dissatisfied with the Chicago Club. "I am satisfied with the White Sox," he said. "If they want to send me to the east I will be glad to come; if not I will be satisfied to stay where I am."

The magazine did not discuss seriously the proposed organization of the Continental League. Ban Johnson said the league was "the joke of the season and against the rules of organized baseball."

On the request of Clark Griffith of Washington a change in the schedule to allow New York to play in Washington on June 4 was ratified. Philadelphia scheduled for that date was moved to September 30. The change was made so that four clubs could play Washington during the Shriners convention there.

Numbering of the players and standardization of the home run were tabled until the December meeting.

Senator George Wharton Pepper's suggestion that the proposed American League monument to be erected in Washington symbolize the national game of baseball and not the American League was adopted.

The magnates went on record as opposing the registering of hits and errors on the park score boards claiming that it would be an aid to gamblers.

The "Tigers" will again come together with the Capitol City, although not to the same team they met a week ago. Tonight they will play the All-Americans and as they have a large list of victories to their credit a fast game is expected.

The Dokays will pick their team from the following men: Wood, Kennedy, Jones, Covey, Reynolds, Struck, Smith, Lawrence and McGhee. Jones has fully recovered from his recent illness and will be in the game from start to finish and undoubtedly will put plenty of "Ginger" in the game.

The game will be called at 7:45 P. M. in the David Prince Gym and Coach Mitchell will officiate.

HOME RUN BAKER WANTS TO PLAY IN THE MINORS

The answer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to force the weight down. Marmola Prescription Tablets overcome all these difficulties. They are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of cheapness. A case is sold at one dollar by all druggists the world over, or send the price direct to the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. Now that you know this, you have no excuse for being fat, but can reduce steadily and easily without going through long sieges of tireless exercise and starvation diet or fear of bad effects.

MICHIGAN STRONG IN ILLINOIS RELAYS

Michigan is going to cut a wide swath in the big indoor relay carnival at Illinois on Saturday afternoon, March 3. From all accounts Coach Steve Farrell is loaded for bear with a well-rounded squad that is especially strong, however, in the distance events.

The Wolverines will probably have an all-around entry in the person of Hubbard who is an adept at both high and low hurdles. Smith, a high jumper who recently accomplished one inch over 6 feet is likely to bid for first place in the jump. Farrell has a bunch of likely milers including Bowen and Shenefield.

Isbell and Davis are a brace of two milers on whom Coach Farrell will probably build his four mile aggregation. In general the Michigan squad may be predicted to be strong both in the relay races and in the special events.

Chicago is another Big Ten team which hopes to come back in the University races. The Maroons won three out of the four races back in 1918 and the two mile in 1920. Since that time they have rested on their laurels. Now the story comes from Stagg field that prospects are the best since 1918.

Appearance of Bradley, Knox, Earlham and other colleges in certain to make snappy competition in the college division. There are three races for this class—mile, two-mile and medley.

SIKI TO MEET CARPENTER AGAIN

PARIS, Feb. 19.—An agreement has been reached between the managers of Battling Siki and Georges Carpentier, says La Liberté today, by which the fighters will sign soon for a match involving the light heavyweight championship of the world, the title which Siki won from Carpentier at their meeting. The newspaper added that the fight will take place here Sept. 9 and will be for twenty rounds of three minutes each, with four ounce gloves. The fighters it is said will receive either five percent of the gate receipts or 20,000 Francs in addition to their training expenses, the remainder of the receipts being donated to French charities.

BUILD NEW STADIA FOR SPORT LOVING CROWDS

NEW YORK.—Growing popular interest in outdoor sports, especially in baseball and football will result in largely increased accommodations for spectators in 1923, according to present indications. Conservative estimates place at 500,000 the total simultaneous seating capacity which scores of fields and a few larger stadia will have when plans now under way are completed.

While more than half of this capacity is scattered among smaller schools, colleges and athletic club enclosures, approximately 216,000 will be accommodated in four big arenas. These are the three major league ball parks—Polo grounds, Yankee stadium and Ebbets field—and Baker field, Columbia's new stadium.

Yankee stadium, home of the American league baseball club in the Bronx, is rapidly nearing completion and if not entirely finished will be ready, at any rate, for the formal opening of the 1923 baseball season in April. A 400 yards cinder path will offer facilities for track and field sports, while football and boxing also will be staged in the big arena, whose seating capacity will be from 70,000 to 80,000.

World's series attendance last fall at the Polo grounds exceeded all previous records there, and as a result the home of the New York Giants is being enlarged to seat 54,000, about 17,000 more than its present capacity. Football and boxing also figure as attractions at this field. Ebbets Field, grounds of the Brooklyn National league club, with seating capacity of 22,000, has been used for boxing and occasionally football.

Plans for Baker field, Columbia's projected stadium to be erected at 118th street and Broadway calls for a bowl seating between 50,000 and 60,000 but it is doubtful if this will be realized for sometime. Work on the playing fields is expected to start in the spring, with the possibility may be played there in the fall, but university athletic authorities point out that the development of the whole project is yet in its infancy.

Next fall, with the Yankee stadium as a neutral battleground, football is expected to claim much greater public interest. Already Syracuse and Pittsburgh universities have agreed to play their annual game at the American league park, and it is probable that New York will be the scene of the Army-Navy classic, which for several years has been held at the Polo grounds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Plans for more organized distribution of prison made products to avoid competition with those of "free" workmen, will be made at a conference here on March

The drawings for the district basketball tournament to be held in Jacksonville on March 12 and 13 were announced yesterday from the Principal W. H. Kaiser's office at the High school. The drawings were made at the headquarters of the Illinois High School Athletic Association the latter part of the week but were not announced until yesterday.

Jacksonville draws White Hall as opponent for the fourth game of the tournament. This matches the two strongest teams in the district and the winner of this game will probably go thru to the championship of the Jacksonville tournament. This game will be played on Friday morning and will no doubt be the main feature of the tournament.

The officials for the tournament are to be C. E. Brockman of Jerseyville and Casper Jacoby of Alton. The latter takes the place of Green who was previously announced as one of the officials but who will be unable to serve. Lists of the players for the seven teams entered in the tournament are being received daily at the high school and the tournament programs will be printed as soon as they are all in. The programs are to be printed this year by the High School press.

According to the schedule, games 1, 2 and 3 will be played Thursday evening; games 4, 5 and 6 will be played Friday morning; games 7, 8, 9 and 10, will be played Friday afternoon; games 11, 12 and 13 will be played Friday evening; games 14 and 15 will be played Saturday morning, and game 16, the final, will be played Saturday evening. Saturday afternoon is reserved for the teams at rest but it may be possible that some of the semi-pro

Skin Ablaze

with Eczema

Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red blood-cells. S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red blood cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digesting torture and its scabbing, unrelenting itching, disappear, bubble and boil, they all pick up and go, when the life of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-plants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1892! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and blood-purifiers known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and is well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in 50c sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S. S. S. makes you feel like yourself again

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong purgatives. It is best not to take calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take a place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a loaded liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

FIRE LOSS SUNDAY AT HOME NEAR WOODSON

Henry Reese Loses Buggy Shed and Contents Sometime During Sunday Night—Other Woodson News.

Woodson, Feb. 19.—Henry Reese living three miles east of Woodson, had the misfortune to have his buggy shed totally destroyed by fire sometime during the night Sunday. In the shed were three sets of harness, three buggies, 18 horse collars, one wagon and five or six lap robes, together with numerous other articles, and all were destroyed.

The fire was not discovered until the next morning, and the origin is a mystery. Lloyd Reese, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Reese returned home about ten-thirty o'clock Sunday night and noticed nothing out of the ordinary at that time. The shed was located quite near the barn and it is almost a miracle that the latter structure escaped the flames. The son had vehicles and tools in the building valued at $1600.

It is understood that the loss is partially covered by insurance.

News Notes.

A large portrait of "The Father of His Country" occupied a prominent position in front of the altar, and this was illuminated in a striking way. The program was arranged especially in honor of Washington's birthday and was enjoyed by a large audience.

Mrs. William Craig of Jacksonville is spending a short time here at the home of her son, Harry Craig and family.

The Woman's club will hold the regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Odd Fellow's hall. In giving the list of hostesses in a recent issue the name of Mrs. Baxter was unintentionally omitted.

FRIEDA HEMPEL MAY APPEAR HERE MARCH 9

Famous Grand Opera Star May Be Brought Here Thru Friendship for Girl Students at School for Blind.

Local music lovers will be interested in the announcement that there is a strong probability that Miss Frieda Hempel, famous grand opera singer, may appear here in a concert program on Friday, March 9 at the Grand Opera house.

Definite arrangements have not yet been completed but Miss Elizabeth Newman of the faculty of the School for the Blind has been in communication with Miss Hempel's manager at New York and as March 9 is an open date there is a probability that she will visit this city on that date.

If Miss Hempel comes here it will be at great personal sacrifice and because of her friendship for a group of girl students at the School for the Blind.

Two years ago Miss Newman accompanied a group of the girl students to Springfield to hear Miss Hempel in La Traviata. Subsequently the girls wrote to the prima donna, expressing their appreciation of the concert, and since then letters have been exchanged at intervals. It has long been the hope of the students at the local institution that the famous singer might sometime be prevailed upon to appear here in concert, and it is now more than likely that this hope will be realized.

The coming of so noted an artist would be an event of far more than ordinary interest and if Miss Hempel appears here she will doubtless be greeted by a large audience.

Things had become almost unbearable and my whole system seemed to be crying out under its burden of ill health. "Well, it wasn't many days after I began taking Tanlac until health, strength and happiness. "For three years past," said Miss Studley, "I have been in a very badly run down condition and, when I began taking Tanlac, I had little hope of ever being my normal self again. My nerves were so undone that at times I could not keep back the tears. Some days I enjoyed my meals and other days I simply had to force myself to eat. I had no energy and the least exercise would leave me completely exhausted. My complexion was becoming sallow and rough and I just seemed to be getting old before my time.

LIBRARY SENDING BOOKS TO SCHOOLS

Books are Selected for the Various Grades and Changed Each Semester—Would Encourage Acquisition of Reading Habit Early in Life.

The Jacksonville public library is sending one thousand books to the different public schools in the city this week. These books are sent to each grade, from the third grade thru the sixth and are arranged in collections suitable to the various grades. A collection of books was sent out to the schools at the beginning of the school year, and at the end of the first semester these were taken back to the library and new ones are being sent out to take their places.

The library, in its work in the public schools of the city, recognizes the importance of children acquiring the reading habit early in life. These books sent out by the library encourage the children to read and are carefully selected to meet the needs of pupils in the different grades. The books include volumes on travel, history, biography, folk tales, geography and other subjects and they aid the child in securing a good foundation in the study of history, and the work in geography. They also help to bring about a desire for knowledge, a delight in reading and an acquaintance with the history and customs of the countries of the world in which we live.

The children are allowed to take the books home with them and after having read them are asked to give a report to the teacher. If these reading reports are satisfactory the pupil is given a higher grade in reading for the work which he has done at home.

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR CONTROL OF TRAFFIC

Were Outlined at Meeting Held in Chamber of Commerce Yesterday—Talk of Boulevard System.

Tentative plans for solving the traffic problems in Jacksonville were made at a meeting of the advisory traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, held yesterday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms with Chairman T. C. McViear presiding. No definite action was taken by the committee, but it was decided to have a map made showing the city's parking spaces, and have it ready for presentation at the next meeting of the committee on Friday afternoon, February 23, at 2 o'clock.

At this meeting definite action on the plans already drawn up, will be taken. At yesterday's meeting of the committee there was general discussion on the plan which has been suggested of making a boulevard system thru-out the city, connecting Duncan park with Nichols park. This would mean the boulevarding of the main streets and would mean the enforcing of traffic rules which compel a vehicle approaching from a side street, to come to a stop before proceeding on the boulevard. This plan would be effective in preventing accidents.

In discussing the problem of congested traffic in the business district it was suggested that no parking be allowed on the side streets off the square for a distance of one block in each direction. Also parking next to the curbing around the square would be prohibited according to this plan. Parking spaces on vacant lots near the square would be provided for business men's cars. The committee, in its plans has no idea of interfering in any way with Central park. These proposed traffic rules and parking spaces will be embodied in the plan of the city, which is to be presented at the Friday meeting.

ATTEMPT TO ENTER EAST STATE STORE

What appeared to be an attempt at robbery was discovered about 9:30 o'clock Sunday evening when Merchant Policeman Murgatroyd found the rear door of George Vasconcellos' grocery store on East State street pried almost open. The intruders had broken the lock on the door and had apparently given up without making an entrance. It happened that the door was braced at the bottom on the inside with a small board. The lock pickers evidently thought they had to deal with another lock, and gave up their work.

Brooklyn Brevities

Sunday was another good day in the steady upward climb of Brooklyn. As a special number at Sunday school Mrs. William Bond's class of fifteen boys whistled the hymn, "I Come to the Garden Alone." The superintendent announced that the first Sunday when the attendance reaches 150 a photograph of the school would be taken. Frank Bourn's class captured the banner for the largest percentage of members present.

H. H. Johnson, representative of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed the audience at the hour for public service, and a quartet sang, "March Boldly On to Victory."

At the evening hour representatives from the seven Odd Fellow organizations responded to the number of 200 men and women, to an invitation to worship at Brooklyn. A fine musical program, consisting of vocal, violin and piano numbers was presented by Prof. Kitchel, Miss Eloise Capps, Miss Inez Pires and Robert Shoemaker. The Odd Fellows sang a chorus "Nearer My God to Thee."

The pastor delivered a sermon on "The Relation Between the Church and Odd Fellowship," in which he showed the similarity in the origin of this lodge and the Methodist church and that each aimed at the same objective from a different angle and appealed to the lodges to co-operate with the church for respect and enforcement of law, for high ideals of righteousness and for preservation and extension of the Word of God.

Next Wednesday night at the church meeting, luncheon will be served by Mrs. Potter and Marie Goheen. At this time, the monthly meeting of the Sunday school board will take place. A full attendance is expected at 7 o'clock. Notice change in the hour.

Next Sunday evening picture will be shown representing the character and life of Washington.

PYTHIANS TREATED TO EARNEST SERMON

Rev. W. E. Spoonts Preaches on "Brotherhood and Christianity" at Annual Service of Lodge Men—Condenses Double Standard.

About three hundred members of the Pythian lodges in this city gathered Sunday morning at the Northminster Presbyterian church to hear the annual sermon which was delivered by Rev. W.

E. Spoonts. The members marched to the church from Castle hall in a body.

"Brother and Christianity" was the subject of a very plain and searching sermon by Rev. Mr. Spoonts. The speaker warned the men not to exalt their lodge above home. He condemned the double standard of man and wife and told the Pythians that their wives had as much right to curse, smoke, chew and drink, as their husbands, as far as the laws of God were concerned.

The minister declared that secret orders were advantageous and set forth the good points of the Pythian order. It is desirable that men should organize for good, not for evil. However, he warned his hearers to spend more time in their homes, and extolled the value of the home in society. Rev. Mr. Spoonts closed his address with an appeal to the lodge men not to exalt the lodge above the church, and said that fraternal orders were no substitute for the Christian religion. He showed how the church reaches its hand to the outcast, while the lodge helps mainly those who are members and belong to the better class of society.

Market Report

PROFIT TAKING FAILS TO STOP SPECULATION

Day's total sales 1,200,000 shares.

Twenty industrials averaged 102.96; net loss, 25.

High 1923, 103.23; low, 96.56.

Twenty railroads averaged 89.80; net gain, 51.

High 1923, 89.80; low, 84.53.

Bond sales, par value, $11,309,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Heavy profit-taking particularly among the usual leaders failed to prevent speculators for the advance from continuing their operations in other sections of today's stock market, giving the list a decidedly irregular appearance during most of the session.

The improvement in sterling exchange, demand bills selling at $1.69 15-16th, a new high record since the "pegged rate" of $1.75 was abandoned in March, 1919, also had a cheerful effect on sentiment.

New high records for the year were made by several stocks, including Anaconda Copper at 51 1/2, Kennicott at 41 1/2, Chile at 30 1/2, Chino at 23 1/2, Stromberg Corbure at 27 1/2, American Bosch Magneto at 43 1/2, General Motors at 15 1/2, Western Union at 119 1/2 and Illinois Central at 114 1/2, but some of these prices were shaded at the close.

Failure of the American Locomotive Company to earn all the preferred and none of the common resulted in some selling of the equipments, but buying support was forthcoming on the strength of the unusually large volume of unfilled orders on hand.

American Locomotive closed 1 point lower at 124 1/2 and Baldwin dropped 1 1/2 to 139.

The new high record for sterling, which reflected a scarcity of commercial bills and general satisfaction over the terms of the feature of the foreign exchange market.

French checks again sold above 600 cents and moderate improvement was noted in the other allied rates.

Cash money opened at 5 per cent and then eased off to 4 1/2 where it closed. The commercial paper was slightly firmer.

United States government bonds again were reactionary, but losses ranging from 2 to 14 cents on $100.

They Are Marvels of Beauty

—That is the remark of every one who has seen the new and lovely "spring 1923" patterns in imported and domestic woollens and worsteds which we are showing. They are wonderfully soft in texture and lustrous in finish, yet so firm in weave as to hold any form they are worked up into perfectly.

—They exclaim, "Marvels of Beauty," and they might well add "of utility" as well, and "remarkably reasonably priced."

WEATHER IN ARIZONA IS UNUSUALLY COLD

February Brings Coldest Weather in Arizona in Ten Year Period According to S. W. Nichols.

The month of February has brought unusual weather conditions in Arizona, according to S. W. Nichols, who is now staying in Tombstone. The weather during February has been the coldest known in that region in ten years. Mr. Nichols writes the following letter to Journal readers:

Tombstone, Arizona
Feb. 14, 1923

Dear Journal:
During February we have been having winter in earnest, the coldest weather in this region for ten years. One night ice nearly a quarter of an inch thick froze which was a decided curiosity in these parts.

The cold weather seems to have been a good thing for me. A few weeks after my arrival here I was visited with a severe bronchial cold which is epidemic in this place and which I was well discouraged but the cold weather of February has been a tonic which has greatly reduced the cold which I hope will wholly disappear before my anticipated return which I trust will be at least in April if my native state, dear old Illinois, will kindly have some respectable weather for my purpose. One fine is most singular. My appetite has been good enough but not strong as I am perfectly compelled to take but little exercise. I have eaten as much as I needed and have slept well and since my arrival, October 21st, I have gained fourteen pounds in weight.

Altho the cold is strong, with few exceptions, we have several hours in the middle of the day when it is warm and the sun shines so that one can sit out of doors. Our altitude, nearly a mile, causes a quick drop in the temperature as soon as the sun goes down and some of the mountains about us are covered with snow which is quite picturesque and speaks well for the water supply next summer.

Stream of Tourists

Notwithstanding the winter weather the stream of cross continent tourists continues. Some of them travel in dilapidated cars which one would hardly think could hang together but it seems as if a Ford can go almost anywhere with four wheels and an excuse for an engine. Many of the travelers are hard pressed and beg gas here to take them to Tucson. Occasionally too, things are missed and one night a garage was broken into and robbed of considerable property, undoubtedly the work of travelers. One day an aged tourist with his family, arrived in Bisbee and while there suddenly dropped dead. A short time ago a remarkable outfit passed thru the place. It was occupied by a lady and her husband. The latter said he was a landscape artist painting scenery which especially pleased him as he went from place to place. He certainly was a pleasant gentleman whom it was a pleasure to meet. His outfit was a study indeed. It was a regular miniature house built mostly of tin and board and mounted on a Dodge chassis. It was wide enough for a bed which was across the structure in the rear while next to it was a clothes chest and opposite a complete housekeeping outfit, cupboard, stove and miniature sink, the whole thing as complete as one would well imagine. He said the material cost about $175. He told me his daily expenses for food, gas, oil and upkeep, in all amounted to two dollars a day. They were wholly independent and could put up anywhere for the night.

Mexican Turns Killer

This region has produced some remarkable characters and the story of them seems never to grow old. One of these was Joaquin Murieta, a young Mexican who came across, because fluent in the English language and proceeded to have a good time. He was yet but nineteen when he began his wonderful career. He was of a convivial turn of mind, a fine dancer, played the banjo and other musical instruments and withal was a good one at the gaming table tho he was always fair as fair went those days. But one day he was missed and his days of dancing and conviviality were over. As he was riding along a trail he was met by a party of men one of whom recognized the horse the young man was riding as one that had been stolen from him. Horse stealing was the most unpardonable of crimes in those days and the offense was punished with death. The young man told his captors that he had borrowed the horse from his brother who had come honestly by it and they took him to the brother who assured them he had bought the animal of a stranger in good faith. Not accepting his word they strung him up without further delay and stripping the young rider they flogged him cruelly and let him go. He dug a grave and buried his brother's body and over the fresh earth made a solemn vow, first to get the men who had killed his brother and then to devote the rest of his life to killing Americans. He had persuaded Rosita, a handsome Mexican girl, daughter of a wealthy ranch owner, to run away with him and they began their career. Stealthily he hovered about the locality, seldom seen in the daytime but at night he got in his deadly work. One after another of the mob who ended his brother's life was found dead on a trail he had been traveling the night before. Some of the remainder employed body guards to accompany them but sometimes they would forget and go out alone never to return alive. Thus from fifteen to eighteen of them were paid for their lynching and then the young pair started for California and the tale of their adventures would fill a large book. Jesse James and Frank with the Younger boys were no match for him. He seemed to possess a charmed life and amazing powers of endurance and skill in evading his pursuers and had an Indian's sentiment of revenge which seemed gratified by killing any one not a Mexican. He had a beautiful, highly bred mare which could do anything but talk and to her fitness and wonderful intelligence he owed many escapes. He associated with him a famous number of outlaw leaders each one of whom had a small company and all united with the young man, became his lieutenants and scattered death and destruction wherever they went. It was young Murieta's avowed purpose to make the whole California a smoking ruin and to that end he devoted his skill and energies. He had with him one man especially adept at disguises and who could conceal his identity, mingle in any kind of a company and get all desired information. The band robbed emigrant trains, burned cabins and spread death and destruction generally. Cattle and horses were stolen in numbers and with impunity. Finally it became evident that some superior intelligence was guiding the depredations and at last the name of Joaquin Murieta became known as the leader of his band and a price was set on his head. Ten thousand dollars was the sum and posters were scattered thru the country advising people of the fact.

One day some men saw a stranger reading one of these and then take out his pencil and add something to it and ride away. When he was gone they saw added to the poster: "I will make it fifty thousand."

Joaquin Murieta, Murders Officer

A Deputy sheriff named Clark caught two of Murieta's men and put an end to their existence and the leader swore vengeance. At a big fandango when dancing and hilarity were at their height Clark entered for the purpose of arresting a criminal. While in the place a fight took place and a man who had stabbed another was taken by Clark to a justice who fined him twelve dollars. The young fellow said he had the money at home and if Clark would go with him he would pay up. The officer agreed and on the way the culprit turned on him and saying he was Murieta stabbed him to the heart. It was a lesson to law enforcers to let Murieta's men alone. The whole story was told broadcast next day thru some mysterious sources. The murders grew so alarmingly that determined efforts were made to run down and exterminate the outlaws but the latter had spies and friends everywhere. One time a sheriff named Buchanan determined to take the gang and learning of their rendezvous started very secretly to overpower them. Their plan was betrayed to Murieta and when the posse stole up to the place it was deserted and then from mysterious quarters bullets whizzed about them ending the lives of most of their number.

The sheriff himself encountered one of the outlaws and engaged in a pistol duel with him and managed to get away badly wounded and next day received word that his antagonist was Murieta whom it would be well to let alone.

One evening, in a big gambling hall a great many men were gathered playing the game all armed to the teeth while the proprietor had a loaded rifle handy. Playing went on and among the number a dandy young Mexican with a broad cloth serape and broad brimmed hat heavily bejeweled and looking fine.

He played with the men near him, winning and losing as the case might be. Finally a group of miners near him began to talk about Murieta, the prospects of capturing him and so on till one big fellow exclaimed: "Murieta! How I would like to set my eyes on him; I would shoot him as I would a rattlesnake."

Instantly the handsome young Mexican dandy leaped to the table on which were the cards and gold dust used in gambling and throwing back his serape disclosed a brace of pistols which he flourished and shouted:

"I am Murieta! Now shoot! The crowd were dazed and no one moved. The young fellow descended and a passageway was made for him and he left the place unhurt and with his hand departed that night.

One day a young deputy sheriff named Wilson gathered about him a crowd and called for volunteers to hunt down and exterminate Murieta and his gang. He told eloquently of the depredations committed, the many murders and roused his crowd to a high pitch of frenzy. Just then a young horseman rode up alongside Wilson, whispered a few words in his ear, what no one ever knew; then a sharp report of a pistol was heard, the officer fell mortally wounded and Murieta rode away unharmed.

Bullet Ends Career
One day a little schooner set out for San Francisco well laden with treasure and on board a crew and guards, five in all. Before it had gone very far a row-boat shot out from the willows near by, five men boarded the schooner, killed the occupants, near by, five men boarded the craft. The band was led by Murieta.

Raid after raid followed and murders were thoughtfully frequent until finally a determined ranger named Love gained knowledge of Murieta's whereabouts and descended on him as he was washing his favorite mare neither halter or bridle on the creature. One of his trusted lieutenants, Three Fingered Jack, was near by. Murieta sprang to the mare's back and was rapidly borne away to the brink of a precipice down which she leaped twenty feet, regained her feet, her master mounted and sped away. Three Fingered Jack was gathered in by the others and the rest hastened around the precipice, after Murieta. His horse was shot from under him and at last a bullet ended his remarkable career.

INCOME TAX FACTS

No. 18.
Losses arising from "fires, storms, shipwreck or other casualty or from theft," are deductible whether or not connected with the taxpayer's trade or business. If a dwelling or automobile is destroyed by fire he may deduct the loss for the year in which it occurred. Damages done to a home by direct action of a storm constitute a deductible item. Allowance must, of course, be made for any insurance received.

"The term 'other casualty' within the meaning of the revenue act means one arising through the action of a physical force of nature, for example, a flood or frost.

In case of a collision between a truck and an automobile used for pleasure or convenience, the owner of the truck may claim a deduction for damages, provided at the time of collision the truck was being used for business purposes. In such a case the amount expended by the owner of the truck for its repairs is deductible from his gross income not as a loss sustained from an "other casualty" but as an ordinary and necessary expense paid or incurred during the taxable year in the carrying on of a trade or business. The owner of the pleasure car, however, is not entitled to such deduction. His car was not being used for business, nor was the loss sustained by "other casualty" as defined above.

Loss of property by theft or burglary is an allowable deduction, and need not be incurred in trade or business. A loss for embezzlement is also deductible.

As a general rule, deductions for losses are allowed for the year in which sustained. In exceptional circumstances, however, and in order more clearly to reflect income, the Commissioner of internal revenue may permit a deduction for a loss other than in the year in which actually sustained. The taxpayer must account on his return for the loss in the period in which sustained. If he desires to deduct the loss as for another period he must attach to his returns request for consideration by the commissioner, together with a complete statement of the facts upon which the request is based.

NEIGHBORLY ADVICE

Freely Given by a Jacksonville Citizen.

When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Jacksonville resident.

B. F. Allen, retired farmer, 852 N. Prairie St., says: "I had a bearing down pain through my back over my kidneys and when I stooped, a darting pain went through the small of my back. My kidneys acted too freely and the secretions contained sediment. I knew my kidneys were out of order so I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills. It didn't take Doan's long to fix my kidneys up in good shape and I was soon rid of the trouble. Since then I take Doan's whenever my kidneys get out of order and they always bring the same good results."
